

This creative universe builds a cosmic dance that seeks perfection, symbolizing the will to improve as a human being day by day. Dance, Aerial Acrobatics, Music, Video art, Drawing and Painting create a visual experience that transforms spaces, rethinks the concept of fear and danger and redefines virtuosity in the Dance to expand consciousness, experience the strength, and in turn, of the fragility of the human being and his ability to overcome to difficulty with grace, exalting the present and the great mystery of nature on a quest to learn more about himself and how to coexist with society.

Works

IXAKENE. <https://www.laquebaila.com/portfolio>

IXAKENE , in Muisca Indians language, means, "Blessing" and also means "gratitude". This Multimedia performance is the result of a whole life of work around Dance, integrated to VideoArt, Music, and Aerial Silk Acrobacy. Metaphors that talk about connection between humans and Nature, are told in this rhythmic and colorfull Dance to awake awareness of the big importance of our indigenous ancestors cosmogony, and to love and respect sacred animals and plants.

The Artist seeks incur a labyrinth of surreal imagery to push the limits of the ordinary perception of the body. The power of expression, and the irrational content opens the door to new forms that activate the imagination, and take the viewer to travel trough his consciousness. The performer´s body materializes figures that are drawn thorough her sense experience, and the present is narrated by her movements. The performer explores an abstract and non-verbal language that is the Aerial Dance in silk to get into the transformation. Inspired by the image of Alice falling into vacuum (Lewis Carroll) and the aesthetic of Fritz Freleng, the artist sets a sort of entrophy and brings to the spectator elements to create his/her own psychedellic fiction from the images that are presented: A Dancer suspended, drawing in the air with her dance, music, sounds and silence.
